COUNTY SERVICES

The Municipal Act and other pieces of legislation guide municipalities with respect to the services they are required or allowed to deliver:

Mandated County Services

- Ontario Works
- Community Housing
- Early Learning and Child Care
- Housing and Homelessness Services
- Long Term Care and Seniors Services
- Paramedic Services
- Solid Waste Management
- Planning
- Emergency Management

County Directed Services

- Roads
- Forestry
- Tourism Simcoe County
- Museum
- Archives
- By-Law Enforcement
- Economic Development
- Lake Simcoe Regional Airport

Although the County provides a range of cost-shared services to both the cities of Barrie and Orillia, they are politically and administratively separate from the County. Representatives from the Cities of Barrie and Orillia are invited to participate in decision-making at relevant County Committees related to those shared services.

County Governance Structure

Beginning with the 2026-2030 term, County Council is comprised of 17 members, including the Head of Council (Warden) and the Mayors of the County's 16 member municipalities.

The Better Regional Governance Act, 2026 permits the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing the option to appoint the Head of Council at the start of the term; otherwise, Council will appoint the position.

While sitting as a member of County Council, Councillors consider and make decisions regarding County services that are in the best interests of the residents of the County as a whole.

County of Simcoe Council / Committee / Board Meetings

All members of County Council are required to attend regular and special meetings of County Council and its Committees, as well as any advisory or special purpose Committees, Boards, or Commissions to which they are appointed.

With few exceptions, there are a minimum of two regular Council/Committee meetings each month which are typically held in the Council Chamber, County of Simcoe Administration Centre, 1110 Highway 26, Midhurst. Regular and special meetings of both Council and Committees occur during the day.

Council Orientation

Local Mayors will be provided an in-depth orientation session to further inform and prepare them for their responsibilities as County Councillors.
