Blue Moon Junction Cottage Bar & Grill

A ROADSIDE FAVOURITE WITH STRONG COMMUNITY ROOTS

Located at 9620 Highway 11 South in Severn, Blue Moon Junction Cottage Bar & Grill has become a popular destination for residents, cottagers, and travellers exploring the region. Ideally situated along Highway 11, the restaurant combines the familiar charm of a classic roadside grill with the warmth of a welcoming neighbourhood gathering place.

A SENSE OF PLACE

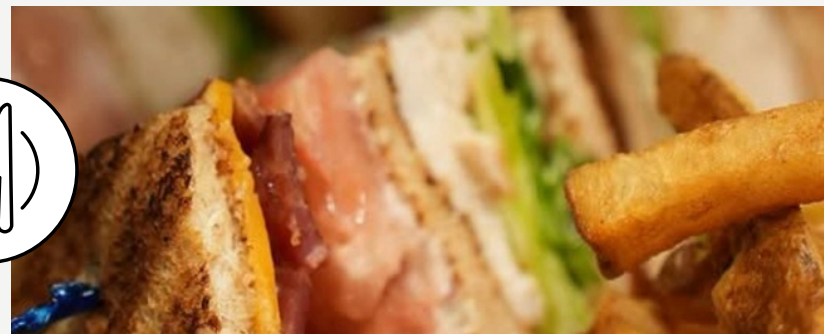

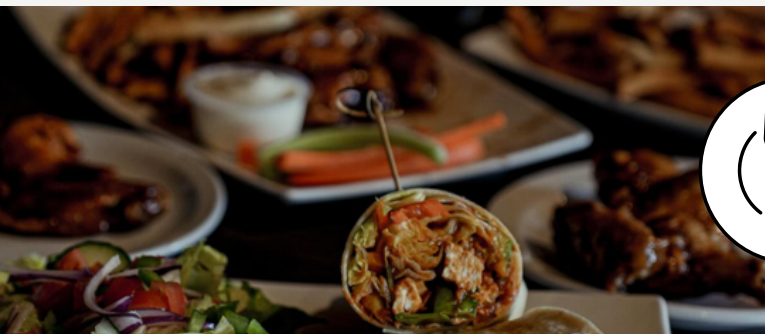

Blue Moon Junction has earned a reputation as a convenient stop for travellers heading north while also becoming a favourite gathering place for the local community. On any given weekday, the restaurant is often filled with residents meeting for regular get-togethers, friends catching up over a meal, and local groups holding informal meetings. During the summer months, the patio becomes a popular spot for visitors and residents to enjoy a crafted cocktail or a cold beer in the sunshine. From autumn through early spring, Blue Moon Junction also hosts community events, including charity nights and Thursday local talent evenings, creating opportunities for people to get out, connect with their neighbours, and support local performers and causes.

CREATING A MENU FOR EVERYONE

One of Blue Moon Junction's greatest strengths is its extensive menu. Whether guests are stopping in for an early breakfast before heading to the cottage or gathering for dinner with family and friends, there is something to suit a wide range of tastes. The restaurant has earned praise from residents and visitors alike for its generous portions, home-style cooking, and friendly service. The kitchen team also works to accommodate dietary needs and preferences by customizing orders whenever possible.

A WELCOMING TEAM

After only a few visits to Blue Moon Junction, there is a good chance the staff will remember your name—and perhaps even your usual beverage order. When owner Diana Roman began planning the restaurant, she knew she wanted to attract and retain talented chefs and service staff. To support that goal, she chose to offer full-time positions in an industry where part-time employment is often the norm. The team shares Diana's passion for the restaurant, and that commitment is reflected in the friendly, attentive service guests receive.
